COMMUNIST CHINA / INDIA BORDER AREAS

- Areas Chinese have occupied since 20 October
- Boundary shown on recent Chinese Communist maps (Where differing from US and Western maps)
- Boundary shown on recent Indian maps (Where differing from US and Western maps)
- Boundary shown on most US and Western maps
- Road or track
- Spot height (in feet)
- Pass

Chinese-proposed Demilitarized Zone--based on November 1959 "Line of Actual Control"---shown in Peiping's People's Daily of 11 November 1962.

*India - Communist China: The extent of Chinese withdrawal from the main points of contact along the present Sino-Indian cease-fire line remains uncertain.

The Chinese have been specific concerning their withdrawals only in the Walong area in eastern NEFA. Indian spokesmen have noted signs of activity associated with withdrawal in both NEFA and the middle sector of the border, but have denied that any Chinese withdrawal has yet occurred in the Ladakh area.

New Delhi has emphasized that Indian forces are neither advancing nor withdrawing, but are awaiting further developments. [REDACTED]

Rumania: The USSR apparently has supplied []

25X1

[] its new T-55 medium tanks to Rumania.

Photos in a Rumanian military publication examined at US Army Headquarters in Europe show [] T-55s in a parade in Bucharest last August.

25X1

The T-55, which weighs about 40 tons, has an improved 100-mm. gun, which may be gyrostabilized, and infrared devices for night driving and firing.

The Rumanian Army has in the past had a low priority on modern Soviet equipment. The appearance of the T-55 in Bucharest may indicate that selected units in other satellite armies have also received this tank. []

NOTES

25X1

USSR-Laos: The new Soviet-Laoian economic accords include a trade pact, a gift hospital and radio station for Vientiane, and long-term credits for a hydroelectric station--the USSR's first development project in Laos. General Phoumi, head of the Laoian trade mission, signed the agreements in Moscow on 1 December; the mission is now stopping over in Peiping. [REDACTED]
